ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income.

Defendant is prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with a payment schedule for any fine or restitution obligation. The defendant shall not encumber or liquidate any interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the fine or restitution obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court.

Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $21,166,488.00. Payments shall be made payable to Clerk, U.S. District Court, for proportionate distribution to the victims listed on Pages 10 and 11 of the Pre-Sentence Investigation Report in the amounts consistent with the Order of Restitution signed by the Court on April 28, 2011, in terms of the amounts due to each of the investors listed on Pages 10 and 11 of the Pre-Sentence Investigation Report.

The restitution is due immediately. It is recommended that the defendant participate in the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program and provide a minimum payment of $25 per quarter towards the restitution. In the event the restitution is not paid prior to the commencement of supervision, the defendant shall satisfy the amount due in monthly installments of not less than $1,000.00, to commence 30 days after release from confinement.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing address or residence that occurs while any portion of the restitution remains unpaid.

It is further ordered that the Defendant shall pay the United States a total special assessment of $200.00 which shall be due immediately.

It is also a condition that the defendant shall participate in a mental health program for evaluation and treatment as approved by the Court in accordance with the recommendations contained in the report of the psychological evaluation conducted by Dr. J. E. Summerton dated March 3, 2011, which was ordered by this Court on April 28, 2011. The Court notes Dr. Summerton's diagnosis of mood disorder and recommendation that the defendant continue to take medication as directed by the treatment provider and that he shall remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the Court.

Based on the information presented, the Defendant is excused from the mandatory drug testing provision; however, the defendant may be requested to submit to drug testing during the period of supervision if the probation officer determines a risk of substance abuse.
